

Downloading Zito TV2Go on Roku Devices

Zito Media's TV2Go service can only be installed on a Roku device by using the channel's dedicated link or Channel Code.

Using Zito's TV2Go Dedicated Roku Link:

1. Open a web browser (This can be done on a PC, mobile device, tablet or your Roku).
2. Type the following link in the address bar:
<https://my.roku.com/account/add?channel=ZITOTVBETA>.
3. Sign into your Roku account (If you do not have a Roku account, you will need to create one by clicking "create account").
4. A text box will pop up advising that Zito's TV2Go is a "non-certified channel" (This means that Zito's TV2Go service is a private channel available to our subscribers). Click "OK".
5. A pop up asking "Add Zito TV – Beta to your Roku account?" will pop up. Select "Yes, add channel".

Using Zito's TV2Go Channel Code:

1. Open a web browser (This can be done on a PC, mobile device, tablet or your Roku).
2. Type the following link in the address bar: my.roku.com/account.
3. Sign into your Roku account (If you do not have a Roku account, you will need to create one by clicking "create account").
4. Go to: Manage Account > Add channel with a code.
5. Enter the channel code.
Zito's TV2Go Channel Code: ZITOTVBETA
6. Click "Add Channel".
7. A text box will pop up advising that Zito's TV2Go is a "non-certified channel" (This means that Zito's TV2Go service is a private channel available to our subscribers). Click "OK".
8. A pop up asking "Add Zito TV – Beta to your Roku account?" will pop up. Select "Yes, add channel".

Channels typically will show up within 24 hours. To access Zito TV2Go now, you can refresh your channels on your home screen by visiting:

Settings > System > System Update > Check Now or Settings > Player info on older models.
